

Cell phone use should not be allowed aboard airborne aircraft. As a very frequent business traveler I reommend against any change to the current rules. Use of phones during flight would be very disruptive to all passenger and even less attention would be given to flight attendant and crew instructions.

Thank you.